Be it resolved by the Madison County Republican Convention in mass convention assembled:

1st. That we reaffirm our allegiance and belief in the time honored principles of the Republican party, as expressed in its past platforms and evidenced by successful achievements during Republican administrations.

Ind. We point with much satisfaction to the patriotic stand taken by the Republicans in the state and nation during the great world conflict, even remembering that we were born fighting for the flag and from our incipiency down to the present time not one blot upon our escutcheon.

3rd. We condemn the Democratic state administration for cosruptness, inefficiency, incompetency, and extravagance. Said party has shown an utter lack of capacity in administering the affairs of the state government, and burdened the people with different forms of taxation beyond their capacity to endure, and at the same time, bunging the state deeper in debt each year.

Delightful Service at Christain

Dr. Telford had charge of the services, at the Christain church, last night, in the absence of Dr. Carpenter, the pastor, who is attending the Christian Endeavor Union, at Winchester, of which he is president. Dr. Telford, in his sermon brought, a beautiful message to the large audience assembled, laying particular stress upon God's care for the individual rather than humanity, and the teaching of Christ, concerning the duty of the strong toward the weak. Dr. J. V. Logan, of Middelsboro always much beloved by the people of Richmond sang, "Face to Face" with a religious fervor and a sacred tenderness that touched the hearts of his hearers and recalled other days when the singer lived among us. and the decision in the suit there will undoubtedly have important bearing on the phone rate raises in Richmond. A dispatch from Frankfort told of the suit as folows: The Cumberland Telephone company, the Home Telephone company and Postmaster-General Burleson were enjoined by Circuit Judge Stout from increasing telephone rates in Frankfort and Franklin counties. The restraining order was issued on the prayer of the city of Frankfort, following the announcement the Postmaster-General had authorized an increase in rates in 125 cities of Kentucky.

In arriving at this decision Judge Stout says that he is of the opinion is was not the intention of Congress to give to the Postmaster-General authority to set aside contracts entered into by the city and the telephone companies to increase the rates. He is of the opinion that such an act would be unconstitutional even if it were the intention of Congress to have passed such an act.

His friends and relatives nere are very proud of the news from Washing-ton that among the awards of the much coveted Distinguished Service Cross, was one to Sergeant Henry Howard, of Valley View, this county, a nephew of A. Although seriously wounded during a bombardment near Septsarges, September 27th, scattered his men and caused his company and battallon to retire behind a ridge near. President of the Eastern State Normal, Superintendent of Ashland schools and later Superintendent of Public Instruction. In each of the above capacities he made a most enviable record and the board of Kentucky Wesleyan College could not make a better selection, as he is well known and is very capable for the purpose of deciding how a nomination shall be made by the party to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Harvey Helm. It is said that a special primary may be called. It seems entirely probable that Judge Charles A. Hardin, of Harrodsburg will have no opposition for the nomination, and it is said to be doubtful if the republicans make a nomination agaist him, although the name of Capt. King Swope of Danville, has been suggested by his friends in that connection.
